

Allen Peckham

Allen Peckham is the Chief Development Officer for Partners HealthCare, and his office oversees the fundraising functions at two of the nation's leading academic medical centers, Massachusetts General Hospital and Brigham and Women's Hospital, as well as nine other hospitals and several system-wide programs. Together, Partners affiliates and initiatives raise $300 million annually and employ 225 development staff.

Prior to assuming his position at Partners in 1997, Allen was Senior Vice President for Development and Public Affairs at Mass General, a position he held for five years.

Allen has served on the boards of several professional organizations and is currently the president of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP). He is the former President of the Association of Healthcare Philanthropy's (AHP) Health Systems Development Network (HSDN), a member of the development leadership committee of the American Association of Medical Colleges (AAMC) and is a trustee of the Rehabilitation Hospital of the Cape & Islands.
